Our Mission

WEB's mission is to further the development and education of benefits professionals. We are committed to helping define the role of the benefits professional in the 21st century. As changing legislation, technology and market forces reshape the profession, products and delivery systems, WEB will continue developing programs, educational opportunities and services to help its members meet the challenges ahead.

Our Organization

In 1982, we began as a small benefits group in Washington D.C. Today, with chapter locations in many areas of the United States, we are the premier educational and networking benefits organization.

Benefits of Membership

- ▶ At local chapter meetings and WEB conferences, increase your knowledge and keep current professionally in several important areas: legislation and regulations, health and welfare and retirement topics, presented by speakers who are well-known and accomplished in their fields.
- ▶ Excellent networking opportunities with the broadest range of benefits professionals in the industry. Our members include plan sponsors, benefits practitioners, executives & managers of benefits and human resources departments, attorneys, CPAs, consultants and brokers from the top firms, communication and marketing experts – from large, mid-sized and small organizations.
- ▶ Receive two top notch WEB newsletters • Benefits Insider, WEB's monthly publication, provides the latest developments from our Nation's Capital on matters of interest to benefits professionals. This newsletter is a result of WEB's alliance with the American Benefits Council, a premier benefits advocacy organization.
  - The Network, WEB's in-house quarterly newsletter keeps you informed about programs and services available through WEB as well as a host of other benefits topics.
- ▶ Participate in WEB's member-only discount programs:
  - WEB's Member Exclusive Benefits (MEB) program offers discounts with Club Quarters, Enterprise Rent-A-Car and Working Advantage
  - Discounts for seminars and educational opportunities sponsored by WEB and other organizations, on a local and national level. As new discount benefits are offered, WEB will keep you informed through The Network newsletter and at www.webnetwork.org.
- ▶ WEB's two-for-one membership fee includes membership in the local and the national organization. In addition, you will receive discounted pricing when you attend • meetings at your local chapter • meetings at any of the other chapters • WEB conferences.
- ▶ Attend "Benefit Basics" webinars presented by WEB National at a discounted price; the speakers are nationally recognized speakers and experts in their fields.
- ▶ Online, in the "Members Only" section of the website, we offer • speaker presentations from WEB chapters around the country • a searchable Member Directory, where you can locate specific members by name, search by professional background categories and other search criteria • other areas of technical interest.
- ▶ Some chapters offer Continuing Education Credits for various designations. Check with your local chapter.
